

CALL FOR NEW AUTHORS

THE COGNELLA TEXTBOOK SERIES ON ADVANCES IN CULTURE, RACE, & ETHNICITY SERIES EDITORS: MIGUEL GALLARDO, ALLEN IVEY, JOSEPH E. TRIMBLE, & NORWEETA G. MILBURN

This exciting new multidisciplinary series will feature core monographs, books, and supplements on key and emerging topics around broad areas of culture, race, and ethnic studies, as well as specific topics among key ethnocultural groups. The books will be authored and edited by top scholars, from a variety of disciplines, worldwide. All inquiries, including multidisciplinary submissions, are welcomed and encouraged. Topical areas under consideration include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Culturally Resonant Counseling & Psychotherapy
- Indigenous Ways of Knowing
- Resilience & Building Resilience
- Social Justice & Advocacy
- Strength-based Approaches in Working with Ethnocultural Communities
- Community-based Approaches
- Intersectionality
- Racial & Gender Discrimination
- Authentic Leadership
- Health & Well-being
- The Current Political Climate & its Impact on Ethnocultural Communities
- Research Ethics with Ethnocultural Communities
- Immigrant & Refugee Studies
- Cultural Advances in Personality Assessment
- Culture & Suicide
- The Implications of Neuroscience/Neurobiology in Cross-Cultural Health
- Substance Use & Abuse
- Preventing & Treating Intergenerational Transmission of Trauma
- Sexual Orientation & Culture

The editors are interested in developing books intended for college- and university-level classroom use and aligned to curricula for established and newly emerging courses in the social and behavioral sciences. If interested, please email Dr. Gallardo, Dr. Ivey, Dr. Trimble, or Kassie Graves:

miguel.gallardo@pepperdine.edu

allenivey@gmail.com

joseph.trimble@wwu.edu

kgraves@cognella.com

NMilburn@mednet.ucla.edu

ABOUT THE EDITORS

Miguel Gallardo, Psy.D., is a professor of psychology at Pepperdine University's Graduate School of Education and Psychology. He is a licensed clinical psychologist and Director of Aliento, The Center for Latina/o Communities at Pepperdine University.

Allen Ivey, Ed.D, ABPP, earned his doctorate degree in counseling at Harvard University and is the Distinguished University Professor Emeritus at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. Dr. Ivey created the Microskills approach and tirelessly advocates for the incorporation of multiculturalism in the field.

Joseph E. Trimble, Ph.D., is a Distinguished University Professor, professor of psychology, and research associate in the Center for Cross-Cultural Research at Western Washington University. He has edited multiple volumes and authored over 140 publications in the field, including 22 books.

Norweeta G. Milburn, Ph.D. Dr. Milburn is a Professor-in-Residence in the Department of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences at the UCLA Semel Institute Center for Community Health and Director of Research and Evaluation at the Nathanson Family Resilience Center. She received her Ph.D. in Community Psychology from the University of Michigan (Ann Arbor). Prior to coming to UCLA, she was an Associate Professor of Psychology at Hofstra University in New York and Assistant Director of the Psy.D. program in School/Community Psychology. Her research interests include homelessness, substance abuse, mental health and family-based behavioral interventions.

Kassie Graves joined Cognella in 2015 as the Director of Acquisitions and Sales. She manages Cognella's specialist acquisitions editors, field acquisitions editors, and the sales team. Kassie leverages her personal knowledge within the fields of social work and human services to sign engaging and effective texts in the discipline. She brings a wealth of knowledge to Cognella with over 20 years' experience in the publishing and marketing industries.

Cognella is redefining academic publishing by providing teacher-driven, student-centric higher education course materials in print and digital formats under three imprints: Cognella Academic Publishing, University Readers, and Cognella Active Learning. Cognella also publishes engaging nonfiction titles featuring modern perspectives as Cognella Press.